Master's Diver's,

After a tremendous competition at our 2023 Spring Nationals, we invite you to continue the amazing 2023 Masters competitive season at the 2023 Masters SUMMER Nationals at the University of Iowa in Iowa City, IA. Both of the meet hotels are great hotels that are both within walking distance to the pool. We are thrilled to have them both supporting our group with a special $99 per night rate. The University of Iowa has an AMAZING FACILITY and we can't wait to showcase the very best Masters diving has to offer with what is sure to be a spectacular competition!

For our Saturday Night Social, Alan Schenck will show off his home state by taking everyone to the Amana Colonies to share a bit of Germany with everyone who attends. For more information about the Amana Colonies, please visit <https://amanacolonies.com/>. More details about the Saturday Social will be available soon! To best plan, we ask that you register as soon as possible. If you prefer to wait to register, please alert us via email at info@mastersdiving.org that you plan on attending.

The schedule will be set up similar to the ODD year schedule. Please look at Divemeets.com for more information. The exact timeline will be finalized for the Athletes Meeting on Thursday, June 13th.

Hope to see everyone there!
